Rule 690-171.011, Florida Administrative Code

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

WHAT: Pursuant to section 624.424(11), Florida Statutes, each authorized insurer or insurer group issuing personal lines or commercial lines residential property insurance policies shall report, for each such line of insurance, an annual Florida Property Claims Lifecycle Data Call (PCLR) reporting form detailing closed claim experience. For PCLR, insurers are required to provide information related to closed claims with and without payment for personal or commercial residential property policies to include:

- Claims closed with and without payment in Florida in the prior calendar year for Sections A-1, A-2, A-3 and A-4.

WHO: PCLR must be completed by insurers licensed in Florida for the following lines of business:

- Allied Lines
- Commercial Multi-Peril
- Farmowners Multi-Peril
- Homeowners Multi-Peril
- Mobile Homeowners Multi-Peril
- Mobile Homeowners Physical Damage Only
- Property (Fire)

DUE DATE: PCLR is due by 11:59 PM ET annually, on or before March 1, via the Insurance Regulation Filing System (IRFS) located at:

irfs.fldfs.com

NO DATA: A “No data” option may only be used by insurers with no personal or commercial residential closed claims with and without payment in the prior calendar year for the lines of business listed above.

FIELDS TO BE COMPLETED: Insurers are required to complete all fields in Sections A-1, A-2, A-3, and A-4.

INDIVIDUAL SUBMISSIONS: Data should be submitted on an individual company basis. Once submitted, data may be aggregated at the group level by OIR.

TRADE SECRET SUBMISSIONS: An affidavit must accompany a filing that is submitted as a trade secret per section 624.4213, Florida Statutes. Refer to the Contacts tab for additional information.

Failure to respond to the data call may result in administrative action.
